Collect. Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

1st Reading. Ezekiel 2.1-5 Psalm. 123 Reading. 2 Corinthians 12.2-10

Gospel acclamation. Alleluia. Alleluia. Speak Lord, for your servant is listening you have the words of eternal life. Alleluia.

Gospel Reading: (Mark 6.1-13) He left that place and came to his home town, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, 'Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?' And they took offence at him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Prophets are not without honour, except in their home town, and among their own kin, and in their own house.' And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, 'Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.' So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Post Communion Prayer. God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Within West Dartmoor Mission Community we have a small team of lay and ordained volunteers to attend our Mission Community Care Settings. We offer pastoral visits, a listening ear, worship or Holy Communion in the best way we are able to meet the needs of our care setting residents. It's a joyful ministry, in a mutually supportive team where no one is expected to do anything that would make them feel uncomfortable. We are looking to build this team and involve many more lay people. Perhaps you feel that God is calling you to this role as a visitor, as an Anna Friend or to train as an Anna Chaplain. Anna Chaplains and Anna Friends support people spiritually. They are community-based, working in a variety of settings, going where people are, to those in need, whether in their own homes, in retirement facilities, care homes, dementia-friendly cafes, knit-and-natter groups or any other place. They make no distinction between churchgoers and non-churchgoers, those of faith or of no faith; their care is person-centred and non-judgemental. Please pray for the Mission Community care home ministry team and pray for God's guidance if you feel called to this ministry of abundant blessings.
